cities of Delhi, Mumbai and Kolkata has been implemented since 31.12.2006 and in Chennai since 2003.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) to (e) CAS has been implemented after considering the suggestions of all the stakeholders. Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) has also issued interconnection regulations, quality of service regulations and tariff orders after due consultation with all stakeholders including cable operators. Government has, accordingly, amended the Cable Television Networks Rules, 1994 on 31.7.2006 and specified time-bound activities to be carried out by Government, TRAI, Broadcasters, Multi-system operators and cable operators, which has ensured the smooth implementation of CAS w.e.f. 31.12.2006.

Free-to-air and pay TV channels

2593. SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) the details of free-to-air and pay TV channels being telecast in the country, channel-wise;

(b) the details of places not having cable connection/where national programmes of Doordarshan are not being telecast;

(c) whether Government have received any complaint in this regard;

(d) if so, the details thereof, State-wise; and

(e) the remedial action taken/proposed to be taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI PRIYA RANJAN DASMUNSI): (a) Details of free to air and pay channels of private broadcasters is enclosed in Statement-I (See below) Doordarshan is presently operating 30 TV channels which are all free to air. The list of DD channels is enclosed in Statement-II (See below). Apart from the above Lok Sabha Television Channel which is run by Lok Sabha Secretariat is also a free to air channel.

(b) to (e) Government has not conducted any survey on cable TV penetration in the country as such no information is available about the places where cable connections are not available. In terrestrial mode, DD-I channel coverage is available to about 91.9% population of the country. Area-wise coverage in about 80.9%.

Multi channel TV coverage through Doordarshan's free to air DTH service "DD Direct +" is also available in the entire country with the exception of A&N Islands. As such places not having cable connection can receive television broadcasting through Doordarshan's DTH service.
